1. Brandis airfield (E31) was occupied only by ground personnel and laborers when observed on 29 September 1949. No SA# personnel were in evidence nor were there any aircraft to be seen. There were no guards. There was no vehicle traffic.
2. The well camouflaged field lies about 15 kilometers east of Leipzig, between Brandis and the villages of Zeititz, Leulitz, and Polenz (all E41). Its concrete flight strip is 1,000 meters long and 40 meters wide. The field does not have concrete strips or hangar aprons. No permanent fuel station could be detected. Aside from the flight strip, the actual landing area is grass covered.
